RMI PROSPECTUS

The RMI Prospectus Committee is responsible for bringing out the RMI Prospectus on a yearly basis. It has several weekly meetings each year to review the previous prospectus and deliberate on including newer relevant content based on important events of the past year. It also highlights the various rules and regulations for admission to RMI constituent colleges.

DISCLAIMER

Contents of this RMI Prospectus for Heath Education Programmes are intended to be implemented in good faith. Any adversity occurring to the students, faculty and others because of the contents shall not be brought to the court of law against the institution or its functionaries. Rules and regulations governing various aspects of students conduct in the Colleges (e.g. eligibility, admission, syllabi, discipline, examinations, migration, fees and other charges, etc.) are given in this document as they stand decided at the time of its publication. The Colleges authorities reserve the right to modify, add or delete any statement in it without prior notice. Published rules, criteria and protocols do not in any way restrict the institution to modify these whenever in its judgment it is called for and to implement the modified rules / regulations from a date deemed appropriate.

The Colleges take all reasonable steps to provide educational services in the manner set out in the Prospectus and in other documents that will be issued to students, who are accepted as students of the Colleges. Should certain circumstances beyond the control of the institutions dilute their ability to provide educational services, the schools / colleges will take all reasonable steps to minimize the resultant disruption to the educational services. Application for admission would imply acceptance of the contents of this Prospectus and amendment.

The policy, procedures, and protocols of the colleges are subject to change in accordance with regulatory authorities' rules and regulations.
